

SARA SCHLEY

Sara Schley is the founder and President of Seed Systems www.seedsystems.net an international consulting company established in 1994. Seed Systems uses Systems Thinking while working with individuals, teams, organizations, and networks to accelerate our transformation to a Sustainable world where all thrive. Sara has worked in business, non-profit, government and academic sectors; creating, designing, facilitating, teaching and coaching leadership programs and culture change initiatives for sustainability.

Website: www.seedsystems.net/about-us

LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/sara-schley-74121626

Partnering with Peter Senge and Joe Laur, Sara was the co-creator and leader for ten years of the SoL Sustainability Consortium established in 1999, a network of major corporations including Nike, Shell, Ford, WorldBank, Interface, Schlumbergere and more, challenging each other to create best practices in the field. She is also co-founder of the Women Leading Sustainability Network WLS, a dynamic circle of Women ground-breakers and thought leaders for sustainability established in 2001. Sara is co-author with Peter Senge and others of Learning for Sustainability (SoL, 2006) and of The Necessary Revolution: How Individuals and Organizations are Working Together to Create a Sustainable World; (Doubleday 2008.) Sara has her MBA from the University of Massachusetts and BA from Brown University. She lives with her husband and children in Western Massachusetts. Sara's aspiration is to heal the world and be back in time for her kid's baseball game.

Please follow this link for Testimonials.

Please follow this link for Client List.